

The Globe and Mail

Friday, August 9, 1991

---

Medallions fit for a King

Canadian Press

OTTAWA — A 10-ounce silver commemoration medallion that reads "Elvis, welcome to my world" is part of a series of four medallions being produced by the Royal Canadian Mint.

The series, which includes three one-ounce medallions as well as the larger one — features Elvis in various incarnations and an engraving of Graceland, the singer's Memphis, Tenn., home until his 1977 death, on the flip side.

Mike Makri, owner of Toronto's Legendary Coins, said he contacted